The SVS Terms may be amended pursuant to a resolution of the Board, which Board resolution will be subject to (i) respectively the approval of the meetings of holders of Special Voting Shares A and Special Voting Shares B (to the extent respectively Special Voting Shares A and Special Voting Shares B are outstanding) and (ii) approval of the General Meeting. The aforementioned approval resolutions under (i) and (ii) above are not required when such amendment is required to ensure compliance with applicable law or regulations in case of change of jurisdiction provided the overall structure remains equivalent, or the listing rules as prescribed by the relevant stock exchange where Shares are listed or such amendment is required.
- 7.2. Without prejudice to article 7.3, the Board may at all times by written request (for the purposes of this Article 7, an "Information Request Notice") ask any Shareholder that holds Special Voting Shares to provide the Board with information and documentation which the Board reasonably requires in order to establish whether such Shareholder holds Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A and/or complies with the SVS Terms. Within five (5) days after the date of the Information Request Notice, the relevant Shareholder holding Special Voting Shares must provide the Board with such information and documentation based on which the Board can establish whether such Shareholder holds Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A and/or whether such Shareholder complies with the SVS Terms, provided that in all circumstances the Board shall be strictly bound to comply with the SVS Terms and shall determine that a Person meets the requirements to qualify as an Eligible SVS Holder and/or that a holder of Special Voting Shares complies with the SVS Terms if such Person or holder provides to the Board documents that appear on their face to comply with the provisions of the SVS Terms. If such Shareholder has not provided such information within five (5) days after the date of the Information Request Notice, the Board will issue a notice to such Shareholder (for the purpose of this Article 7, a "Suspension Notice"), stating that the right of such Shareholder to attend and vote at General Meetings with respect to all Special Voting Shares held by such Shareholder shall automatically be suspended as per the date of the Suspension Notice. The suspended rights will resume immediately if and to the extent the Board receives within ten (10) days after the date of the Suspension Notice the information that establishes that such Shareholder holds Special Voting Shares that do not qualify as Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A and that such Shareholder complies with the SVS Terms, without prejudice to the right of the Board to re-issue such Suspension Notice at any time in accordance with the provisions of this article. The Board may, at its own discretion but at all times acting in good faith and consistent with the spirit and content of the SVS Terms, withdraw the Suspension Notice either temporarily or permanently, in each case with the right to re-issue such Suspension Notice at any time in accordance with the provisions of this article.
- 7.3. Any Shareholder that, at any time, holds Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A (for the purpose of this Article 7, a "Holder") must forthwith (onverwijld) notify the Board in writing of the existence of its Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A by means of an information notice (for the purpose of this Article 7, an "Information Notice"). Upon receipt of such Information Notice the Board shall forthwith (onverwijld) issue a Suspension Notice to such Holder, stating that the right of such Holder to attend and vote at General Meetings with respect to these Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A shall automatically be suspended as per the date of the Suspension Notice.

If the Board becomes aware of the fact that such Holder has failed to send an Information Notice as referred to in this article 7.3, the Board will send a Suspension Notice to this Holder, without having received such Information Notice. The rights of such Holder to attend and vote at General Meetings with respect to the Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A of such Holder shall then automatically be suspended as per the date of the Suspension Notice.

7.4. If a Suspension Notice is sent by the Board with respect to Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A and the Suspension Notice has not been withdrawn in accordance with this Article 7, then the Board has the right to resolve to convert those Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A into an equal number of Special Voting Shares B, taking into account the provisions of Dutch law, the Articles of Association and the SVS Terms. The Board has the right to resolve to convert any Special Voting Share B into a Special Voting Share A, acting in good faith and at all times consistent with the spirit and content of the SVS Terms.

7.5. Without prejudice to article 7.4, in case the suspension of a Shareholder's rights pursuant to a Suspension Notice has taken place (for the purpose of this article 7.5 and article 7.6, the "Transferring SVS Holder") the Board may require the Transferring SVS Holder, by means of a notice to that effect, to transfer its Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be), to either the Company or an Eligible SVS Holder selected by the Board within three (3) months following the date of the Suspension Notice for a price equal to the value of these Special Voting Shares A or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be) determined by one or more independent experts selected by the Company, without prejudice to and in accordance with the provisions of the SVS Terms to the extent allowed under applicable mandatory law.

If a Transferring SVS Holder has not, within a reasonable period of no more than five (5) days after having become obliged to transfer its Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be), complied with such obligation, the Company shall be irrevocably authorised to transfer those Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be) as described in article 7.5.

7.6. Without prejudice to article 7.4 and 7.5, a Transferring SVS Holder may request the Company, by means of a notice to that effect, to assist in connection with the disposal of its Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A and/or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be).

The Board shall designate within a period of three (3) months following the request of the Transferring SVS Holder a candidate purchaser (gegadigde) (as referred to in section 2:87b paragraph 2 of the Dutch Civil Code) that is willing to acquire the Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A and/or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be) of the Transferring SVS Holder at a price equal to the value of these Special Voting Shares A or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be) determined by one or more independent experts selected by the Company, without prejudice to and in accordance with the provisions of the SVS Terms to the extent allowed under applicable mandatory law. If there is an Eligible SVS Holder willing to acquire the Non-Eligible Special Voting Shares A and/or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be) of the Transferring SVS Holder, then the Board shall designate that Eligible SVS Holder as candidate purchaser for purposes of the previous sentence, failing which the Board shall designate the Company for such purpose (to the extent allowed under applicable mandatory law). If no Eligible SVS Holder is willing, and the Company is not allowed, to acquire those Special Voting Shares A and/or Special Voting Shares B (as the case may be), then the Board may designate a legal entity or another entity for such purpose (the "Warehousing Entity"). The Warehousing Entity shall be controlled by a board of directors that is independent from the Company, the Shareholders and their respective Affiliates.

- 7.7. The Board has the authority to take measures, in accordance with the SVS Terms, to give effect to the provisions of this Article 7.

All resolutions to be adopted by the Board in relation to this Article 7 shall be adopted with two-thirds of the votes cast (and provided all Directors in office are present or represented). When determining the number of Directors who are present or represented at a meeting of the Board, the seats in the Board that are vacant and the Directors who are conflicted as referred to in article 17.8 are not taken into account.

Special Voting Shares B can only be created through a conversion pursuant to article 7.4, but cannot be newly issued by the Company.
- 8.2. Without prejudice to the provision included in article 8.1, for a period of eighteen (18) months as of the first of July two thousand and twenty-two, the Board is designated to issue Shares or grant rights to subscribe for Shares up to ten per cent (10%) of the issued Shares at the time of the issuance. If a resolution of the Board to issue Shares or grant rights to subscribe for Shares is adopted in the period between the date of the convocation of a General Meeting and the date of that General Meeting, that resolution of the Board must be adopted with two-thirds of the votes cast in a meeting where all Directors in office are present or represented. When determining the number of Directors who are present or represented at a meeting of the Board, the seats in the Board that are vacant and the Directors who are conflicted as referred to in article 17.8 are not taken into account. Furthermore, the Board is designated to issue Ordinary Shares or grant rights to subscribe for Ordinary Shares up to three per cent (3%) of the issued Shares at the time of issuance, in connection with any long term incentive plan(s). If a resolution of the Board to issue Ordinary Shares or grant rights to subscribe for Ordinary Shares is adopted in the period between the date of the convocation of the General Meeting and that General Meeting, that resolution of the Board must be adopted with two-thirds of the votes cast in a meeting where all Directors in office are present or represented. When determining the number of Directors who are present or represented at a meeting of the Board, the seats in the Board that are vacant and the Directors who are conflicted as referred to in article 17.8 are not taken into account. Both designations can be revoked by the General Meeting.

After aforementioned period of eighteen (18) months or so much earlier as the General Meeting has revoked the designation(s), Shares shall be issued pursuant to a resolution of the General Meeting, or pursuant to a resolution of the Board if designated thereto by the General Meeting for a period not exceeding eighteen (18) months, without prejudice to the provision included in article 8.1. At the designation, the number of Shares that may be issued by the Board shall be determined. The designation may be extended from time to time, pursuant to a resolution of the General Meeting.

- 8.3. The resolution to issue Shares contains the price and further terms of issue.
- 8.4. Issue of Shares shall never be below par, without prejudice to the provisions of section 2:80 paragraph 2 of the Dutch Civil Code.
- 8.5. The corporate body authorized to resolve upon the issuance of Shares may resolve that the issuance of Shares takes place at the expense of the reserves or profits of the Company, and determines which reserve may be charged in that respect, provided that only a reserve related to a specific class of Shares can be charged for the issuance of Shares of that specific class. The previous sentence also applies to issuances at the expense of the reserves attached to Founder Shares and Earn-Out Preference Shares provided that the meeting of holders of that specific class of Shares has approved such.
- 8.6. The preceding paragraphs of this article shall apply mutatis mutandis to the granting of rights to subscribe for Shares, but do not apply to the issue of Shares to a party exercising a previously acquired right to subscribe for Shares.
- 8.7. The Board is authorized, without the prior approval of the General Meeting, to perform legal acts within the meaning of section 2:94 of the Dutch Civil Code.
